

A LITTLE BIT OF INFORMATION

The biodiversity center boasts an abundance of rare plants and animals. Acting as an outdoor classroom, our center presents students with a unique learning experience. They get to experience one of the most biodiverse ecosystems in the world!

“THERE ARE A BILLION
TEACHABLE MOMENTS ON
THIS TRACT OF LAND. I AM
HAPPY UWA WILL BE PROVIDING THOSE MOMENTS TO STUDENTS.”

- MR. BILL HUBBARD

LEARN MORE ABOUT THE CENTER

BRIAN R. KEENER, PH.D.

DIRECTOR

UWA station 7 // Livingston, AL 35470

bkeener@uwa.edu

(205) 652-3796

JOAN RUNDLES, MAT

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

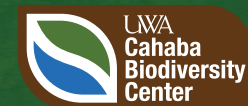

UWA station 7 // Livingston, AL 35470

jrundles@uwa.edu

(205) 652-3862

Cahaba Biodiversity Center

UWA | The UNIVERSITY of
WEST ALABAMA